 - b. Sarcodes: Resonating organ arsenal...

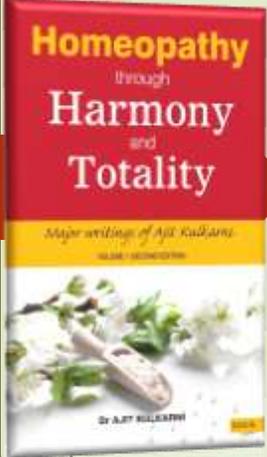

EXCERPTS FROM EACH CHAPTER

GUY TYDOR'S FOREWORD

- This homeopathic masterpiece of the second volume of “Harmony in Totality” by Dr Kulkarni is a magnificent guide towards the study of ‘Methods of Prescribing’ and ‘Homeopathic Materia medica’. The first volume was a compendium of philosophy, thoughts, discussions, instructions, basic ideas of dispositions and personality, the study of emotions and clinical tips to benefit our clinical practice.
- It has been more than 18 years that I have been working with Dr Kulkarni's writings and I have collected hundreds of hours of listening, discussing and debating with this sincere homeopathic master. But now, having these precious words and knowledge written in front of me, wait for reading, rereading and restudying, I was curious. "You have no time to waste Guy, get into the study mode!"- I heard my voice.

CORNUCOPIA

- This cornucopia is not only about data collection but also about data processing and deeper study of homeopathy. Contemplation of the contents of Vol II indicates how deeply the author has delved into his favourite subject of Materia medica which has been presented through Monogram, Group study and Individual remedies.

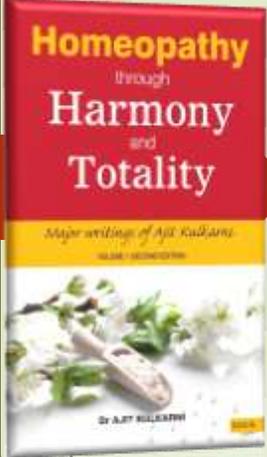

EXCERPTS FROM EACH CHAPTER

GUY TYDOR'S FOREWORD

GEMSTONE OF SIMPLICITY AND SINCERITY

- At the outset, Dr Kulkarni writes deeply about Data processing and Prescribing as the beginning of the practical issues.
- Dr Kulkarni begins with the magnificent Monogram, which is the DNA of every remedy, the codes which describe the mode of action (MoA) of the remedies, the natural way of actuality of the remedies. I find the monogram as the most important contribution to the study of remedies of our generation. This method brings homeopathy back to the talk with science, nature, and art.
- Sub-part II contains 10 lectures of out-of-the-box thinking and analyzing of some of our polycrests and some smaller remedies' personalities and their modus operandi.

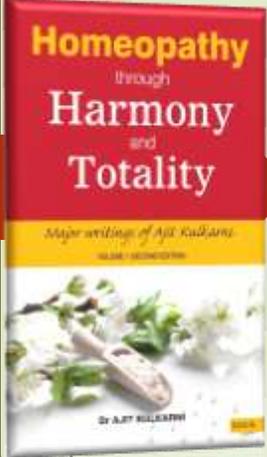

EXCERPTS FROM EACH CHAPTER

GUY TYDOR'S FOREWORD

GEMSTONE OF SIMPLICITY AND SINCERITY

- Sub-part III is all about families and groups.
- As a follower of the great Dr E. Farrington, I am fortunate to study Dr Kulkarni's teachings. The resemblance between the wide perspective of the two, cannot be overlooked. As far as I understand Dr Kulkarni's new book, it is just a short glimpse into one of the most important works in our profession- the big "How" of MM study.
- Homeopathy in the 21st century is going through both positive and harmful changes. More and more methods are born, invented or established while basic Laws of cure are sided or ignored. The combination of Art and Science is fading away with the blindness and dazzle caused by the distortion of the Art. Each and every one of us, the standard-bearers of Homeopathy, must not forget that the only way to utilize the Art is by having a good and sound science, free of assumptions and empty theories, speculations and subjective views that have not been proven.

GEMSTONE OF SIMPLICITY AND SINCERITY

- Sub-part III is all about families and groups.
- This book stands true to its name: "(understanding the) Harmony in Totality".
- A book like "Harmony in Totality" is a Gemstone of simplicity and sincerity which I consider as a "Must ponder and apply book". It doesn't matter whether your daily work with Kulkarni's "Absolute Materia Medica", Kent's, Farrington's, Hahnemann's Pura or any other Materia medica, reading Dr Kulkarni's approach will surely benefit your study and practice.

EXCERPTS FROM OBJECTIVE ANALYSIS OF DATA PROCESSING

TOTALITY AND SICKNESS

- Totality is not conglomeration of symptoms. It is not hodgepodge. It is not an assembly of symptoms. It is not an aggregate amount.
- Totality must represent the system with internal relationships.
- Totality means a whole of an entity.
- To perceive the totality, one requires the vision of totality.
- Totality renders quintessence. We need ideas, concepts, imaginations and fantasies to perceive the multifarious dimensions of totality, but they should not be at the cost of throwing away the hard facts! The objective is to perceive the quintessence of the sick individual and identify the real sickness. The process is to recognize its counterpart in the homeopathic Materia medica and repertory.
- The objective is to fathom the sickness and to fish out the remedy and this should not be sacrificed for running after 'megacephaly' travel!

EXCERPTS FROM OBJECTIVE ANALYSIS OF DATA

CONCLUSION

- An attempt has been made to structuralize the data for the sake of perceiving the segments in their true character. It is unfortunate that no standard protocol is followed for data processing and the increasing use of imaginations and fantasies make the scientific discipline of homeopathy crazy and chaotic.
- Individualization doesn't mean freedom unlimited; it doesn't mean exemption from control; it doesn't mean releasing the action without restraint. Artistic prescribing doesn't mean burying the science. Remember, art is subjective while science is objective. Art is more focused on the perception of the individual and is based on personal experience, opinions, emotions etc. Science, on the other hand, is very systematic. Balancing the art with science will go a long way in making homeopathy much more powerful.
- “The only people who see the whole picture are the ones who step outside the frame”, wrote Salman Rushdie. It is time to step outside the comfort and rigid zone and utilize the blueprint of twenty points to widen the horizon and help the patients with the salubrious therapy of homeopathy.

EXCERPTS FROM THE CHAPTER

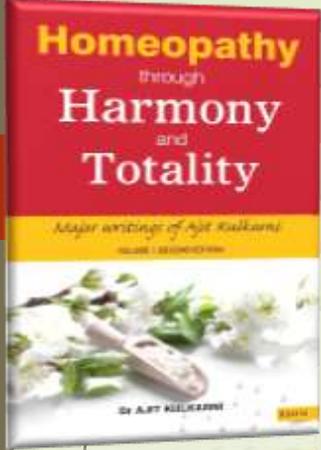

Acute Prescribing: Challenges and Solutions

➤ Homeopathic practice is nothing but applied homeopathic philosophy. When a homeopathic physician begins his practice, he experiences many failures while treating acute conditions. These failures teach the importance of homeopathic philosophy during practice.

➤ For the treatment of acute diseases, the following points are essential.

- One must know the concept and philosophy of acute diseases
- One must know how to build the clinical and characteristic acute totality
- Selection of the remedy based on totality of symptoms
- Selection of potency and repetition schedule

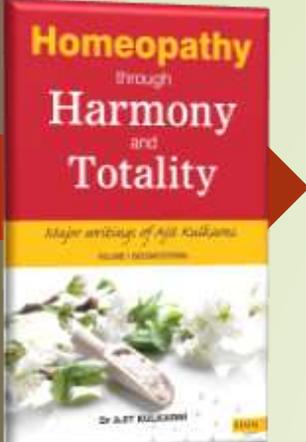

➤ These aspects will prepare the base for the scientific application of homeopathy through the artistic use of Materia medica and Repertory.

EXCERPTS

ACUTE PRESCRIBING

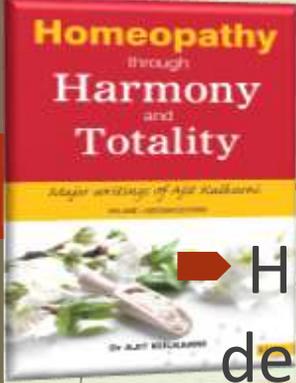

- Accurate and adequate data is the foremost requirement. Any compromise at this level leads to failure.
- Four modules have been presented.
 1. Energy Assessment, Magnitude and Reactive stages
 2. Case taking in acute diseases
 - a. Anamnesis
 - b. Building up acute totality (Five pillars: Cause + LSMC)
 - c. Analysis in stages
 - d. General and Sector Totality
 3. Understanding Patterns
 4. Form-Function-Structure

SOME SELECTIVE AND SIGNIFICANT OFFERINGS FROM CHAPTER “INTERCURRENT PRESCRIBING”

➤ INDICATIONS FOR INTERCURRENT PRESCRIBING

1. Poor/ slow/inadequate/short lasting/superficial response to the indicated constitutional remedy	2. Inadequate similarity
3. Inadequate potency	4. Inadequate repetition
5. Genetic load ++ versus fundamental miasm	6. Dominant miasm ‘active’ and the system depressed
7. Morbid constitution → diathesis	7. Energy reservoir: Poor
9. ‘Indolent’ system	10. ‘Sycotic’ dominance
11. Suppression	12. Presence of maintaining cause(s)

HOMEOPATHY THROUGH HARMONY AND TOTALITY

FROM CHAPTER “TALKING HANDS”

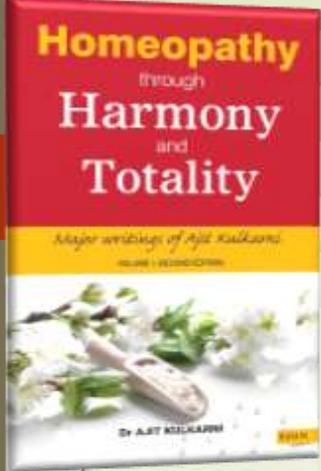

- Hands have even more to say than faces; for, they show emotions, depict ideas and paint beautiful landscapes. The hands are such incredibly gifted communicators that they deserve being watched. Hands are the tactile antennae one throws out to assay our material world and palpate its moods.
- With numerous bones, muscles, joints, and types of nerve fibres, the hand is uniquely crafted to shape thousands of signs. There are more nerve connections between the hands and the brain than any other parts of the body.
- Hence, the gestures, which one makes with the hands, give powerful insights into our emotional states. Watching a hand movement is rather, like peeping into the brain itself. It is said that hands have the richest articulation of space.

FROM CHAPTER “TALKING HANDS”

Conclusion

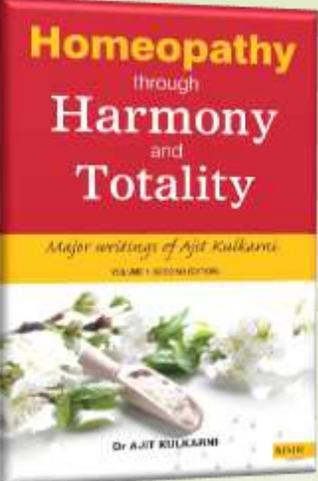

- Hand gestures open up new windows to look at the totality of symptoms. It helps a homeopath in several ways such as to facilitate the interview, to know the energy of emotions, to give proper gradation to emotions, to know the intent and deep state of the mind.
- It must be remembered that one should not interpret isolated gesture of hands. The patient should be studied with all the elements of body language together. Only then justice can be given to the science of kinesics and its application in homeopathic clinical practice.

FROM CHAPTER: DEFENCE MECHANISMS

List of Defence Mechanisms

- Omnipotence
- Idealization-devaluation
- Isolation
- Projection
- Introjection
- Denial
- Turning Against Self
- Isolation Of Affect
- Undoing
- Regression
- Repression
- Acting Out
- Displacement
- Withdrawal
- Identity Loss

Conclusion

FROM CHAPTER: DEFENCE MECHANISMS

- The study of defence mechanisms, according to the homeopathic point of view, is at the beginning stage. Hence, the rubrics in the list for individual mechanisms are subject to change according to the new clinical and psychological data and better understanding of patients' life stories.
- Application of defence mechanisms to homeopathy looks very promising; firstly, it helps better understanding of homeopathic medicines (both mental picture and physicals); secondly, it opens a wide door for using small remedies (which appear in specific rubrics and could be thought of when the life story matches); thirdly, it can open one-sided case or the case with only indirect data is available (e.g. from relatives); fourthly, it can be used in studies of Materia medica of vast remedies including polycrest.

FROM CHAPTER: FAILURES IN HOMEOPATHIC PRACTICE CAUSES AND RESOLUTIONS

Important Causes:

- Defects at various levels
 - a. Diseases
 - b. Patient
 - c. Medicine
 - d. Physician
 - d. Case Taking
 - e. Case documentation
 - f. Tools: Materia Medica, Repertory
- Interference with the medicine
- Medical Errors
- Mistakes in Prescribing

FROM CHAPTER: FAILURES IN HOMEOPATHIC PRACTICE CAUSES AND RESOLUTIONS

CONCLUSION

- The causes of failure are legion, and being a homeopathic physician, one must address them in a serious way.
- The problems encountered in clinical practice and the resolutions that can be applied are discussed in this chapter.
- It is expected that the profession should ponder over the issues raised in this chapter and follow the instructions.
- Remember, the walls of success are built over the stones of failure!

FROM CHAPTER. MONOGRAM - FROM MULTITUDE TO ACCESS

FROM 'KEYNOTES" TO "KEY THEMES"

➤ Behind the disease, there is a person and his consistent unique characters which define the very individuality of him. In spite of the changes that occur in life or in disease, these characters remain unchanged. Hence, they must be a part of totality.

➤ In keynote symptoms, the main theme is to

- focus on symptoms of PQRS type

➤ In key themes, the focus is on

- the personality type, in health and disease, in favorable and non-favorable circumstances, compensated and decompensated stages

- some consistent characters and recurrent pattern of thinking (delusion), feeling (sensation) and acting (behavior) which is inseparable from the system

- some essence which is gleaned from the data and

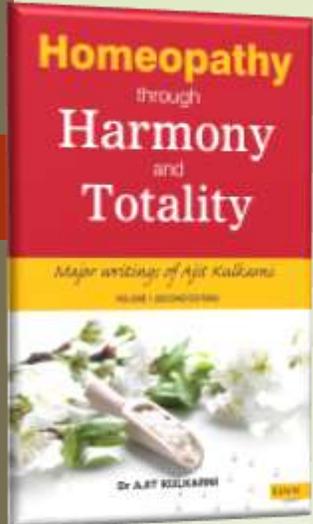

- some central points in the data that define the case

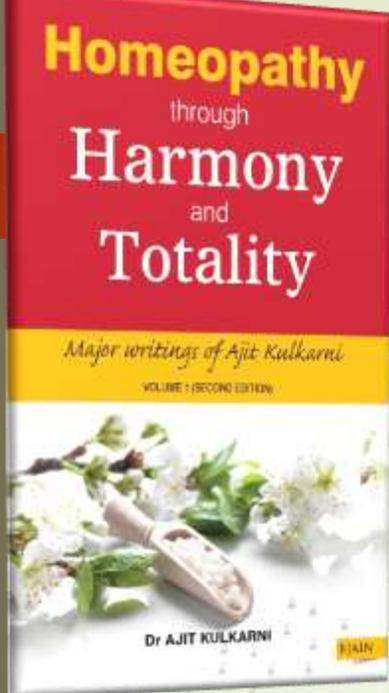

➤ Dr P. I. Tarkas used to say, "Every remedy has multiple hearts and multiple nuclei".

UTILITY OF MONOGRAM

- ▶ The concept of monogram allows to view the remedy under consideration not merely by the symptoms but also by the 'totality' through and through the symptoms. It allows the study of the patient through a broader vision as the mind-body co-relation is better understood. The concept of monogram helps in perceiving the different fields a human being has to confront while he is on the path of deviant energy.
- ▶ The concept of monogram is an objective tool for evaluating the portrait, that the patient represents. It opens up the fields of logic, philosophy, pathology, patterns, integration of the intertwining characters and if these characters are understood in their genuineness, a physician is able to see the movement of the disease (under the miasmatic activity) in a better way. A physician endowed with prognostic ability is a better homeopath and can be more proactive and aggressive in his management of thwarting the miasmatic influence, apart from deeper correspondence of the totality being painstakingly built up by a conscientious homeopathic physician.

Components of Monogram

- Essence of the system following the concept of generalization
- Essential threads that run through and through
- Traits and dyscretic states that identify the essence
- Characters evolved after the deductive inference
- Patterns (behavioural, tendencies, often repeated phenomena)
- Pathological generals
- Miasmatic state

Example: Carbon Group

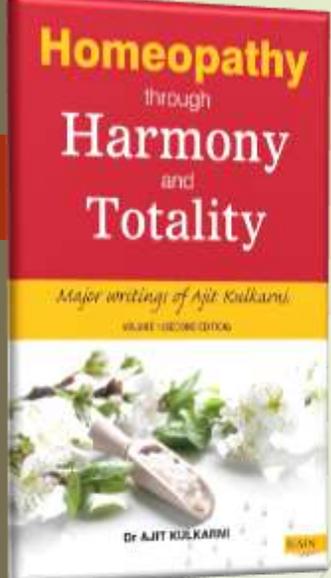

DEVITALIZED. ADYNAMIC. DEGENERATING. VENOUS. SCORBUTIC. PUTRESCENT.

ULCERATIVE. CACHECTIC. CANCEROUS. SENILE. FLATULENT. OFFENSIVE. BURNER.

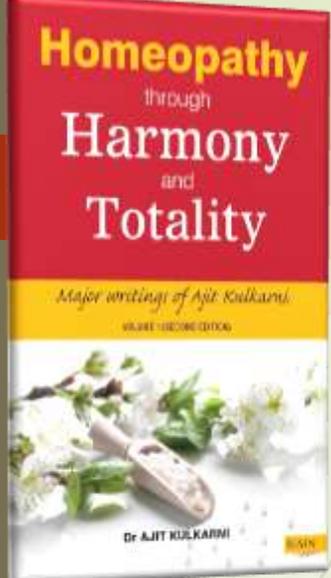

EXCERPTS FROM ANEKANTAVADA AND STUDY OF MATERIA MEDICA

- The resultant product of symptoms in proving is a perfect blend of 'action of the drug' and the 'provers' receptivity'. This complex process can be understood more precisely by comparing it with a prism.
- When white light (drug) is incident on one surface of the prism (given to the provers) it gets refracted into different colours on the other side (variety of symptoms). Hence, it is the medium of the prism (provers), which refracts one light into many colours (one drug and many symptoms). The same is true for an illness or disease.
- The energy of disease (white light) acts upon the various organs of the human body (prism) and produces a variety of symptoms (many colours). Hence, to understand the white light-disease, one must understand its refracted colours (symptoms) in 'unity', because white light is a mixture of all the colours.

EXCERPTS FROM ANEKANTAVADA AND STUDY OF MATERIA MEDICA

- ▶ Unorganized and haphazard symptoms of the Materia medica are confusing, and while reading them, one may be lost in a maze. But there is a solution to it. Change the way one looks at the Materia medica. Materia medica is not merely the listing of symptoms.
- ▶ Form a lens of 'integration and correlation' and have a look at every remedy through it. Understand the pathogenesis of a remedy as a 'whole' and the individual will be surprised to find that the very essence of the remedy is a 'single' thread around which the whole maze of symptoms rotates. This approach extinguishes the fire of confusion and makes the data alive. A symptom or symptoms which can't be explained either anatomically or physiologically may have significance in homeopathic perspective.

EXCERPTS FROM ANEKANTAVADA AND STUDY OF MATERIA MEDICA

- A remedy will then become a 'single' rhythm with different 'notes' but in perfect harmony. Materia medica with this approach, undoubtedly, becomes musical and soothing. It is as if by simplifying the Materia medica, one has eased oneself from confusion and unrest. Evaluation is the process of classifying the components in the order of their importance.
- Evaluation gives value to the underlying properties and synthesis binds them together, defines the relations on which the components stand and creates the design, the portrait.

EXCERPTS FROM

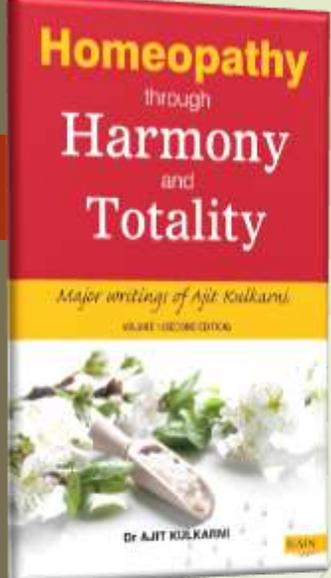

INHERITANCE, CONSTITUTION AND RELATIONSHIP OF REMEDIES

- By integrating the trinity of form, function and structure of the various systems, which the constitution possesses, the multi-dimensional study of sickness, and personality of the individual is obtained in homeopathy.
- Such a study broadens the knowledge in terms of the relation between the individual as a biological unit with its instincts, emotions and behaviour as well as the role played by the environment - the stress which environment exerts upon the organs, systems and personality. Homeopathy propounds an integrated study of nature and nurture.

EXCERPTS FROM INHERITANCE, CONSTITUTION AND RELATIONSHIP OF REMEDIES

- The ongoing dynamic interaction between these two in terms of the delicate balance of homoeostasis as a fundamental urge of the system and the shit that occurs due to the failure of an organism as a part of miasmatic activity are all topics of serious study.
- Diagnosing the constitution and paying attention to the warning signals in the form of feelings, sensations, subjective and objective symptoms, modalities, body language and pathological changes through different stages will go a long way in preplanning the strategies and providing the preventive line of management.

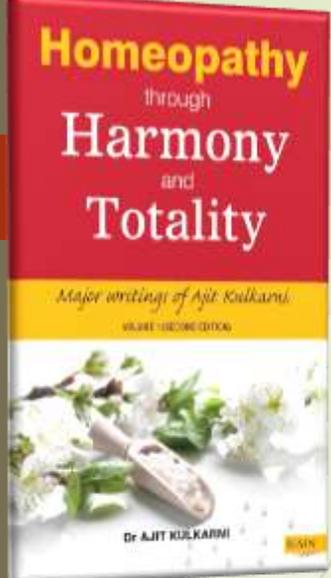

EXCERPTS FROM NATRUM MURIATICUM PERSONALITY WITH DIFFERENTIAL REMEDIES

Brooding: Natrum Muriaticum is not the sole option

➤ Mind ; Brooding (181) Prominent remedies:

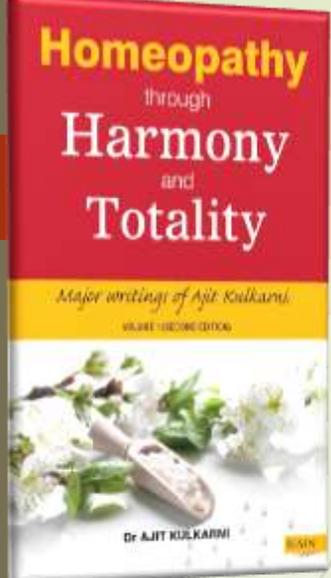

acon., ambr., aur., aur-s., benz-ac., CARB-AN., carc., cham, chin, cocc., con., cycl., falco-p., gels., IGN., kali-br., kali-c., kali-p, ma ac., naja., NAT-M., nux-m., op., ph-ac., plat., plb., psor, puls, ran-b., rheum., RHUS-T., sep., staph., sulph., verat.

EXCERPTS FROM NATRUM MURIATICUM PERSONALITY WITH DIFFERENTIAL REMEDIES

Discussion of some remedies

- Benz-acid has a superb combination of aggressiveness (acid element) and physical sluggishness (carbon). Acids cause scars which remain as an impression. There is a tendency to dwell over the past painful incidences that include quarrels and loss (e.g. of a girlfriend).
- Carbo-animalis, another carbon, has anger about former vexations, about past events. Homesickness brings on the brooding. She has whining nature. She broods over the the past healthy state and dwells over pathological conditions like breast cancer or a strong degenerative condition. There is despair due to incurable disease and she is very debilitated. She only broods in view of her lack of resources (mental and physical). Brooding < in the morning with a forsaken and sad feeling.

Some Reflection of Grief Remedies.

- Differentiation- Ignatia, Aurums, Phosphoricum Acidum, Platina, Staphysagria, Conium Maculatum, Magnesium Muriaticum, Ammonium Muriaticum, Eagle, Lac group

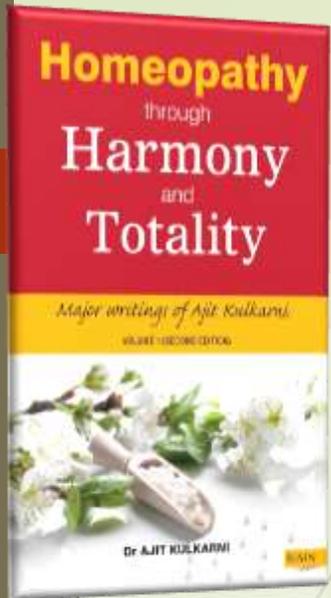

Love: Important rubrics and remedies The Identity problem

Conclusion: An attempt has been made to perceive the multifarious and diverse relations of Nat-m. The objective is to remain unprejudiced and not to practice under the fixed ideas about remedies. If Nat-m. is indicated, prescribe none other than Nat-m. only. But if one stuck in the remedy due to inadequate knowledge of Materia Medica and prejudiced state of mind, he/she must contemplate on the statement nothing is superior to 'Law of similars'.

EXCERPTS FROM MEDORRHINUM ANIMALCULE

- Med. is the representative of the sycotic miasm, which has 'proliferation', 'hyperplasia', 'overgrowth', and 'exuberance' as the keywords. And all these pathologies thrive on the vital energy of the system.
- Hence, gonococci, Med. and sexual route then become inter-linked to explore the remedy, as the remedy is prepared from a sexually transmitted material.

HOMOEOPATHIC MM: CONNECTING THE COMPONENTS

- Life is neither individual nor collective, it is an individual whole. Unity is the nature of life. By cherishing fragmentation of dividing life into the individual and the collective, the inner and the outer, the physical and the physiological, results in dichotomies, the bonds get loosened, and the overall outcome is chaos.
- The action of a remedy, at various levels, yields innumerable symptomatology of diverse and heterogeneous type. Although apparently, it gives the picture of chaos, there lies organizing. unifying principle, which connects the components.

EXCERPTS FROM HELONIAS DIOICA : A CATWOMAN

- Helon. is a remedy for a modern woman, who is caught between her responsibilities at home and her career outside.
- She is interested to work as a businesswoman rather than being a family women (Mind; Laziness; Housekeeping - aversion to).
- She wants to control everyone, the children, the husband and the office.
- She always seems to land in difficulties due to certain personality characters she possesses.
- Helon. is an ambitious lady and for her, business is more important than her family.
- If her ambitions do not get fulfilled, she becomes sad, melancholic, despondent and hypochondriac.
- She may become indecisive and develop a lack of confidence and fears (Mind; Irresolution), with weakness of memory.
- She may also develop envy towards those who are successful (Mind; Envy).

ARSENIC ALBUM

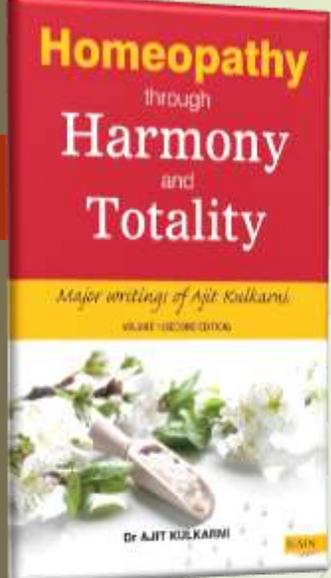

- Calm, quiet and relaxed patient
- Suffering without complaints
- Thirstlessness
- Passive picture of illness
- Desire and tolerance for cold drinks (this is mostly in acute conditions where there is a craving for lemonade and cold drinks which are tolerated or vomited)

EXCERPTS FROM UNCOMMON REMEDIES IN CLINICAL PRACTICE

CONCLUSION

- A homeopathic physician should develop dispassionate and open approach to the study of Materia medica.
- Many lesser-known remedies await their potential to be explored.
- A broader vision about Materia medica will be developed only through a detailed history of the patient and search for its accurate correspondence in the Materia medica.
- The study of remedy relations will magnify the vision about lesser-known remedies and hence, remedy relations must be included in the study.

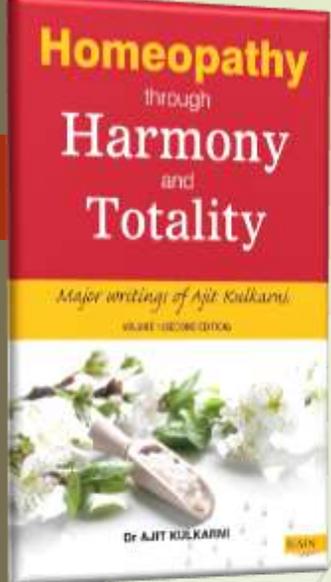

EXCERPTS FROM UNDERSTANDING THE TRIO: PULSATILLA – SILICEA – FLUORICUM ACIDUM

HEADINGS

- The three remedies with their nuclei
 - Multi-dimensional Pulsatilla
 - The all withdrawing Silicea
 - The all embracing Fluoric acid
- Entry points of Evolution
- Remedy relationships
- Miasmatic Assessment
- Inter-relations between Puls., Sil., Fl-ac.

EXCERPTS FROM UNDERSTANDING THE TRIO: PULSATILLA – SILICEA – FLUORICUM ACIDUM

CONCLUSION

- An attempt has been made to explain the trio Puls.-Sil.-Fl-ac. Through the dimensions of source information and its characters, symbolic/metaphoric correlation, biological system, mental structure and behaviour, pathophysiology, pathogenetic action and consequent clinical data and a lot of emerging points of integration which came up during the study.
- The trio reflects the often repeated story of the human species – to be an immature (child) first, then desperately trying to evolve as a mature human being and finally ending with the never repelling animal instinct!
